

Enterprise Solutions Superstore Alliance

The single trusted source of software on the cloud ▲

Riding on our cross-border data centers and extensive experience in managing complex computing infrastructure operations and mission critical systems, PCCW Solutions launched Enterprise Solutions Superstore Alliance (ESSA) that enables enterprises with access to agile and all-inclusive cloud services from a single trusted source. We aggregate a series of highly flexible and proven world-class applications from PCCW Solutions and Independent Software Vendors (ISVs) on a secure platform and deliver them via Software-as-a-Service to support customers' operations, as well as using that as a basis to serve customers for cloud services tailored to their needs with the following benefits:

COST EFFECTIVENESS

Enjoy high-benefit economies of scale and minimize total cost of ownership.

ENHANCE CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE

End-to-end service from PCCW Solutions with all-inclusive cloud services from a single trusted source.

SECURE AND RELIABLE

Secure cloud platform with robust security and identity management.

FLEXIBLE AND SCALABLE

Shorten time-to-market and increase your agility.

ESSA has been cited in industry awards such as Cloud Power Vendor to Watch and Best Collaboration (Service) Silver Award of HKICT Awards, which identify PCCW Solutions as one of the region's most forward-thinking and significant cloud services providers. By offering this fully integrated cloud platform, PCCW Solutions is committed to providing end-to-end IT capabilities to help customers improve their time-to-market, maximize operational efficiency and drive business transformation.
